

PRAYING With CHILDREN

SUNDAY LITURGY

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

3 October 2021 - Year B

“The kingdom of heaven belongs to children like these.”

Something to Think About

Jesus always welcomed children and blessed them.
You can talk to Jesus whenever you like and know that he will be delighted to spend time with you.

The Story

When people brought their children to Jesus so he could bless them, the disciples tried to give Jesus some peace and quiet and told the people to stop bothering him. But Jesus wanted the children to come to him. He told the people that those who were like little children belong to the kingdom of God. Jesus blessed the children. Imagine what it would have been like to be blessed by Jesus!

The Scriptures

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

10:13-16

Some people brought their children to Jesus so that he could bless them by placing his hands on them. But his disciples told the people to stop bothering him.

When Jesus saw this, he became angry and said,
"Let the children come to me!
Don't try to stop them.

People who are like these little children belong to the kingdom of God.
I promise you that you cannot get into God's kingdom,
unless you accept it the way a child does."

"Then Jesus took the children in his arms and blessed them by placing his hands on them.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Group Discussion

Why do you think children were so important to Jesus? What is it about children that is similar to the kingdom? Children are innocent, trusting and accepting. Jesus wanted all people to be like children in these ways, and to trust in him with a natural sense of awe and wonder.

What do you think the kingdom of heaven is like?
